Ft. Washington, MD, July 1, 2012 – Wealth for the Righteous Resource Center (WFTR-RC), a financial literacy ministry, is well-equipped to help Christian consumers take control of their personal finances. “The Word of God gives instruction for all aspects of our lives, including our financial decision making,” says Mary Craft, and this is the premise upon which she founded WFTR-RC.

Through the information and tools provided on their web site (<http://www.wealthrighteous.net>) and in their newsletter, WEALTH for the RIGHTEOUS, WFTR-RC is helping all consumers better understand the financial systems in which they routinely participate. Consumer and family finance, saving and investing, retirement planning, and employee benefits are the areas of personal finance that the Center addresses. “Once they understand how the various systems function, they can make decisions that are in their best interest,” says Craft.

As the vision of this organization was coming into fruition, Craft realized that financial education was not enough, but that WFTR-RC also needed to share the Word of God regarding wealth. On the web site and in all of its publications, including the newsletter, WEALTH for the RIGHTEOUS, readers will find biblical teachings and references. The objective is to encourage Christians to study the Scriptures for an understanding of God’s plan and purpose for wealth.

“It concerns me to see Christians in the same dismal financial condition as non-believers, especially when the Bible states it is God’s will for us to prosper,” says Craft. A former financial service professional, Craft is passionate about her calling to equip the body of Christ with financial knowledge and Biblical financial principles.

The Word of God is the foundation for this financial literacy ministry. “A good man leaves an inheritance to his children’s children, but the wealth of the sinner is stored up for the righteous.” – Proverbs 13:22 (NKJV) “For the Lord hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land.... My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge....” - Hosea 4:1(b), 6(a)

Wealth for the Righteous Resource Center communicates financial and consumer protection information through a quarterly newsletter, “WEALTH for the RIGHTEOUS,” a robust web site, workshops/webinars, public service announcements and social media.
